

Jeffery Lewis Powell

January 12, 2007 ~ September 12, 2020

It was opening day of the youth hunt and he was where he wanted to be. As he layed amongst the few rows of remaining corn, the sun beaming gently upon his face, he began to tire waiting to see what would come out next so he set his alarm, put in his headphones and fell asleep...

He Never Woke Up

Jeffery described himself as "Adventurous" and yes that is the best word to describe him. He was an avid sportsman that included hunting and fishing everything he could. He even bagged his 1st deer at only age 5. Jeffery was an AVID OUTDOORS MAN.

Who was Jeffery? He was everything and more!!!
